We have read about the many monsters and creatures Erik has had to fight in our book, 'The Saga of Erik the Viking'. Design your own mythical monster for Erik to battle! You can use any materials. 	Use your research skills to find out about different musical instruments. Which one is your favourite? How does it produce sound? Write a paragraph to explain. Use the link below to refresh your memory of how instruments produce sound.  https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/z332fq8	Search for and learn rhymes for three of your trickiest times tables. Choose one rhyme to learn by heart so you can recite it confidently in class. Write the rhyme neatly in your homework book, making sure it's clear and well-presented. 	Find out about different Christmas customs around the world. Create a 'Did you know?' information page or mini booklet with illustrations, diagrams, photos, etc. Be creative in your layout and information you have researched. 	Try different methods to revise your spellings. Experiment and see which methods work for you. You could try: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rainbow writing • Pyramid spellings • Look/cover/write • Making a wordsearch • Something else! Record at least one of these methods in your HW book.	Learn to sew. Try sewing on a button and a name tag or a patch. Try creating something using your sewing skills. Complete the 'Interest' page in your Duke Awards Book. You can also include a photo of your work. (Pg 17)
