Activity:
Create a model or labelled picture of a volcano with the different parts. Or Design a motif or logo. For example: design a logo or sign for your club at school, your bedroom at home or a motif for a hat.	Research: How can we stay safer in the darker months? What can we do to be seen when we are out in the dark? Make a poster or an advert to help people stay safe during the darker months. Please send in any pictures you have to canadianbears@jubileeprimaryschool.org.uk or americaneagles@jubileeprimaryschool.org.uk We will display these posters around school.	Our presentation is very important. To help us practise this, please write about the roles of the people in your family, giving details about the work that they do. For example: My Dad is a painter and decorator. He goes into people's homes and paints their rooms. He has his own business called Paint Pot Ltd. My Mum is a dentist. She makes sure everyone's teeth are clean and healthy. She works in Maidstone.	Can you research a famous fossil discovery? Why is it famous? Where was it found? Who discovered it and when? Try to be as descriptive as possible using paleontologically terms and, if you can, pictures. This will help form some of our research when studying fossils in class. Make sure that your details are correct on your pictures and labels. Check your spellings, punctuation and handwriting.	Do you know key details about yourself? It is very important for us to know key details when communicating with the emergency services. Can you learn the following: - Parent's full name - Your address including your postcode - A contact telephone number Remember private details should never be given to people, including people online	 Duke Awards: First Aid Challenge Learn how to put casualties into Recovery Position and practice how to phone the emergency Services with your adults. Record your reflections on pg.14-15 of your Duke Awards book.  Please make sure that your adult is with you at all times when practicing any part of this homework.
